President Donald Trump is declaring "this fake election can no longer stand."

His comments came early Tuesday morning after a forensic audit of the presidential vote tally by Dominion Voting Systems software used in Antrim County, Michigan, showed a more than 68% error rate.

The audit was released Monday by state court Judge Kevin Elsenheimer of the 13th Circuit Court of Michigan in a case brought by county resident William Bailey against Antrim County.

"This is BIG NEWS," Trump tweeted. "Dominion Voting Machines are a disaster all over the Country. Changed the results of a landslide election. Can't let this happen. Thank you for the genius, bravery, and patriotism of the Judge. Should get a medal!"

And, in response to a post by radio personality Kevin McCullough about the audit findings, Trump added: "Thank you Kevin. Many Trump votes were routed to [Joe] Biden. The highly respected Michigan Judge released this epic report. True all over the Country. This Fake Election can no longer stand. Get moving Republicans. Big Swing State Win! 75,000,000 VOTES."

Both of Trump's tweets were flagged by Twitter, which noted his claims about election fraud are disputed.
