The Biden gang's relationship with the CCP included colluding with the CCP on a strategy to beat President Trump in the 2020 election.

Hunter Biden dropped off his laptop at a PC repairman more than a year ago for repairs. Hunter's laptop eventually became the property of the PC repairman due to Hunter's inability to return and pick up his computer. Per the agreement signed by Hunter and the repairman, if Hunter didn't pick up his laptop, the laptop became the property of the PC repairman. Hunter never picked up his laptop.

Over the past few months, experts have been analyzing Hunter's laptop. Based on these reviews, we have reported various disgusting details of Hunter's life and the Biden family by analyzing this data. Hunter kept a diary on the laptop. He also backed up his text messages and kept pictures and videos of himself and prostitutes and family members doing drugs and having sex. Hunter even uploaded some of these sex tapes onto the porn site Pornhub:

The Biden Family wants America to believe that they are the typical hard working American family, but nothing could be further from the truth. Joe Biden said his son Hunter had done "nothing but good things his whole life" per the Daily Mail in a report on Valentine's day earlier this year: Joe Biden on ... Continue reading

Yaacov Apelbaum at the Illustrated Primer today provides some more shocking findings hidden on Hunter's laptop.

Hidden between tens of thousands of emails, IMs, documents, videos, sound recordings, and encrypted files is a collection of communications between Hunter Biden and one JiaQi.

JiaQi, AKA JaiQi Bao, AKA Jiaqi Wang, AKA Jiaqi Wang Bao, AKA Wang Bao Jiaqi, AKA Qinping Bao, AKA TianTian Bo, was Ye Jianming's US based assistant/advisor. If you don't recall the cast of characters in this Chinese finger puzzle, Ye Jianming, was the chairman of the China Huaxin energy conglomerate and Hunter's and Jim Biden's business partner.

Ye Jianming and his US based staff worked closely with Chinese intelligence which controlled large parts of the strategy, funding, and overseas operations of CEFC and another of the Biden's Chinese joint ventures named Bohai Harvest RST (BHR).

Apelbaum provides pictures of JiaQi and more information at his site:

Apelbaum writes:

Following traditional honeypot tactics, JiaQi was used to sweeten Hunter's already saccharin laced business engagement with CEFC. She kept an eye on Hunter from her base in NYC and acted as a cutout between the overseas Chinese officials and the Bidens. In one alluring communication JiaQi wrote:

"...regarding the delivery of your doggie chain and holiday/birthday package. I safe kept your belonging for you as promised. I don't think it is appropriate to drop off to a third party given the risk of miscommunication as happened in the past. How about I will either deliver it to you in person at your convenience or FedEx to a designated address where you can receive it directly?"

Based on the above note and the picture below we know that JiaQi was referring to the dog tags Hunter was wearing, probably is brother's:

But Hunter's relationship with JiaQi was more than sexual. The CCP through JiaQi was buttering up the Bidens and providing information to the Bidens on how to defeat President Trump in the election. Here is one example – a 2 page email to Hunter offering talking points:

Hunter, Ignore Media Nonsense! Focus on Priority = Support Your Father

1. Whoever you date/hangout is your personal matter, and it is your freedom. Your personal life has nothing to do with your business outside of your household. More importantly, your personal life has nothing to do with your father. Regardless who you are, your personal space and your freedom in personal life deserve to be respected and protected. Don't let bad people abuse every small gossip they can find to distract you. There is an adage that says if someone wants to find fault in you, they will always find a way, no matter what you do. Why care about what they say?
2. Maybe some people feel entitled to criticize their leader/president's marital life, but they should not disturb the private life of president's children and relatives, unless you are Donald Trump who practices nepotism obsessively by granting his family members top security clearance and promoting his children into key posts/government positions.
3. You should be proud of your work as a lawyer and as a business executive. Through my work with you, I could tell you are a righteous person always interested in helping others and helping this country through your involvement in the business world. You were helping American companies and American entrepreneurs to make money in energy, agriculture, real estate, and sectors that our national policy promotes exports and investments globally. You have contributed to "Made in America" for this country's best interest.

You treat your business partners not only fairly, but try to find the best solution with everyone's interest in mind, even sometimes that sacrifices your own interest. No matter how experienced and gifted businessman you are, you will always stumble upon bad deals, dishonest individuals, or bad people who took advantage of you, and run into incompetent partners who cause burdens without your knowledge. These people's conduct has nothing to do with you.

Trump advocate's stupid book with exaggeration and fabrication on your business connection with Chinese or that NYTimes article mentioning a retired Hong Kong official trying to reach you/Uncle Jim when need help have no relevance whatsoever! "Fake friends", "acquaintance of all sorts", and even strangers, may have access to your contact info, so what? In business, you have no control over your counterparties' action, you can't predict the conduct of random businessmen who claim to "know you well" either. Some folks love to "namedrop" and call your number simply because of a casual conversation in public events, your attendance of formal business engagement, or after meeting in conferences. Nevertheless, as with any professionals or business executives, you are obligated to attend such functions/events and meet people from all walks of life from diverse cultures.

If there is anyone who deserve to be scrutinized for doing business with Chinese, it would be Donald Trump:

And page 2:

- Trump real estate selling American citizenship cheaply to corrupted Chinese officials. He and his rich real estate friends' "visa for rich" immigration program led rich + legal immigrates abuse U. S. social welfare (while those who really need the help couldn't get any)!
- Trump's easygoing with Chinese "state-owned enterprise" ZTE amidst opposition from Congress
- Trump also let China go easy on human rights violation...

Plus

- Trump association with Chinese owner of Florida prostitution parlor

Further, his trade war with China has been a complete failure thus far, resulting in tremendous loss to Americans (from American farmers/energy companies, to enterprises across spectrum, to average people). As of now, we have the highest trade deficit in 30 years, but ironically China has not changed a single thing on unfair business practice and intellectual property thievery that have been going on for decades! Even if a look-good-on-paper agreement is reached, it will take years for China to enforce properly + the damage and expense already incurred (but could have been avoided).

I could agree with Trump that it is the right direction to re-evaluate China and prevent another country take advantage of the U. S., but Trump is so inexperienced with execution! By the way, keep in mind, before Trump, it was President Obama and your father's administration who initiated this effort of curtail China's global influence, and it was Democrats' initiative to fight against Huawei espionage under President Obama and your father's administration. The critics who first raise concerns about China's raise to power and about trade are primarily Democrats.

Trump should not take credit from the administration before him + play the China card to gain popularity. (If we were really to play the China card and debate on policy toward China, Blue should have the upper hand. Lastly, the mistakes made on China policy should really trace back to Republican era of Nixon/Kissinger and the Bushes were all pro-China, more so than anyone else.)

Last word on the trade war, we have a hand of good cards to start with, but Trump didn't use it well, at least not fully utilize it, with his inexperience in diplomacy/international affairs, his arrogance and overconfidence, his poor strategy and subpar execution. I don't mean to be arrogant, but I really think even I have better ideas than him and could have done much better negotiating for America.

There are numerous other similar communications from the Chinese to the Bidens. Including entire strategies as noted in the Board minutes from a firm Hunter was on, BHR Partners.

As Apelbaum notes:

These and some of the other documents strongly suggest that the Chinese government was engaging in full-blown influence and hands-on election interference on US soil via front companies like CEFC, HBR, and others, and that Hunter, Jim, and Joe Biden were actively colluding in these operations.

The Biden family and China were colluding on a strategy to win the 2020 election. There's much to support this statement.
